Brennan Pilot Is Optimistic
Chicago, Ill., July 22.—Leo Flynn, who manages Bill Brennan, doesn't think very well of Carpenter.
"Where do they get this stuff about the Brennan being such a wonderful fighter?" queries Leo in a plaintive voice.
"Why look over his record and show me if you can where he has that kind of reputation coming. Joe Jeannette was as good as handcuffed when Carpenter beat him. Willie Lewis was through a couple of times before he ever saw Carpenter. And look what Papke and several other marionettes did to Georges. Knocked him for a goal, didn't they? Sure they did! I'll bet my shirt that Georges don't beat Levinsky if he ever fights him. Let alone follows like Dempsey and Brennan. Why Bill Brennan would make a sausage out of him."
And by way of amplifying his "wonderful" opinion of the Franchman Leo offered his parting shot.
"Anybody who got a reputation by beating such fellows as poor old Blink McCleary can't amount to much. What a wonderful exhibition that must have been!"

Operator Enjoys 'Seeing' Strikeout
Shocker may have been delighted when he fanned Ruth the first time up in the opening part of the double header, but he had nothing on the telegraph operator who upset a perfectly good newspaper office at press time.
The operator has not seen a game all season, but he "visualizes" each play and cites the weakness of each batter as well as the fact who gives out every day.
"I'm tired of seeing Ruth make homers," he explained after he recovered from the effect of Shocker fanning out, "and it's a great relief to see him strike out."
Just another of the things that make baseball a great game.

Hamilton Made Rapid Rise
Brutus Hamilton, of the University of Missouri, stands today the recognized all-around champion of America. One week ago Hamilton practically was an "unknown" in the athletic world and his rise to fame is one of the real sensations of the athletic world. Coming from the west one week ago he gained prominence by winning the national Pentathlon championship. Saturday he proved that his victory was no fluke when he defeated 15 of the best all-around athletes in the national Decathlon and established new figures for the ten-event competition. Hamilton will next be heard from at Antwerp.

Young Erne Is Dundee Surprise
Philadelphia, Pa., July 22.—Johnny Dundee bumped a tarrar the other night at Trenton, N. J. The Italian star had taken on a match with George (Young) Erne of Philadelphia with the expectation that it would not be very hard sailing for him, but this was what the Trenton Times says of the scrap:
"Johnny Dundee must have great respect for George Erne today. For 12 rounds last night he was just about the busiest little Scotch-Wop that ever climbed through the ropes. Erne crowded him from bell to bell and it was necessary for Johnny to empty every trick known to the game to hold the Trenton boy to a draw." It does not necessarily mean that Dundee has gone back, but rather that Mr. Erne has come forward rapidly of late. Erne is a husky lightweight, calling 135 pounds.

"There was a black pent in the ring the night I speak of, and his moniker was Deacon Ellison. He was so black that you could see him in a dark room."
"Well, Deacon tore after the other seven guys this night in the battle royal. He kicked, allowed, chucked and tripped them. He finally downed the whole seven and left the ring on the opposite side from his opponents." "He collected the money and we forgot about him. That night after the show was over I was talking to Kid Sullivan on a corner. There in a doorway near the street car terminal was the Deacon. He was waiting. He was watching the people get on the car one by one, and still he waited."
"Do you live around here, boy?" asked Sullivan of the Deacon.
"No, sah," piped Ellison. "Ah live in South Washington."
"Why don't you get a car? You'll miss the last one in a minute or so," said Sullivan.

Lewis Wants to Meet Carpenter
New York, July 22.—As the recent and fruitless conflict between Jack Kearns and Francisco Demarcas broke up, Charley Harvey, who was camped on the edge of the session, broke in with a loud and raucous offer to bet 10,000 pounds that Ted Kid Lewis can whip Carpenter. Charley offered to match the Ted Kid with Georges Deth and there, but the offer did not get him anything but a rather sharp reprimand from DeMancas, who understands more English than he lets on, as does Georges. No sooner had Harvey shouted out his offer than the Ford Francule was on his feet. Pointing his finger at Harvey, he replied:
"Ted Kid Lewis. Posh, posh! Go whip Britton!"
And Harvey got red around the collar, while the gang set up a loud laugh.

Canada Cal's Cheerful Chirps.
It is much pleasanter to be going to sing than to be going to Sing Sing. Whether are we drifting? American strains at the knot to dissolve marriage ties and calmly swallow the camel of prohibition.
The bills recently signed by Gov. Smith permit fifteen rounds of boxing and as many rounds as you like of 275 per cent. That's a good sign.
The higher the percentage the merrier the mucklake.
J. B. stands for John Barrycorn, and lots of others are quite willing to stand for him, too.
Anyway J.
